This evening, experience one of the hottest new musicals on Broadway. After breaking house records at both Berkeley Rep and The Kennedy Center, Ain't Too Proud, written by three time Obie Award winner Dominique Morisseau (Pipeline, Skeleton Crew), directed by two-time Tony Award winner Des McAnuff (Jersey Boys), and featuring choreography by Tony nominee Sergio Trujillo (Jersey Boys, On Your Feet), now brings the untold story of this legendary quintet to irresistible life on Broadway. Get ready — cause here they come! This thrilling story of brotherhood, family, loyalty, and betrayal is set to the beat of the group's treasured hits, including "My Girl," "Just My Imagination," "Papa Was a Rolling Stone," and so many more. Follow The Temptations' extraordinary journey from the streets of Detroit to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame—how they met, how they rose, the groundbreaking heights they hit, and how personal and political conflicts threatened to tear the group

Dorothy Michaels is the biggest sensation to hit Broadway in years. She's talented, outspoken, and an inspiration to everyone around her. In fact, she's too good to be true. Because squeezed into Dorothy's sensible pumps is actually Michael Dorsey, an out of work actor willing to do anything for a job—even it means playing way against type. Now, as audiences fall for Dorothy and Michael starts to fall for the woman of his dreams, he's learning that the hardest part of show business isn't getting to the top... It's keeping up the act.

From the Washington Post review:

“What is that unaccustomed sound erupting all around me in the dark in the Marquis Theatre? Could it be . . . laughter? Why, yes, those are honest-to-God squeals and squalls of delight I’m hearing, as another new show has its official opening on Broadway and, lo and behold, actually lives up to the name of its genre: musical comedy.”

Sunday, Nov. 10 Enjoy brunch at the hotel and your last walk through Central Park.
We depart in the early evening for our trip back home to Indiana.

PLUS... choose an optional third show for Friday evening or Saturday matinee.

There's No Business Like Getting in Other People's Business!!
