Day 6, Saturday, Oct 1st

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and prepare for an adventure as we discover the amazing site of Masada where a battle was fought between the Romans and the Levantine Jews. The siege of Masada was one of the final events in the First Jewish–Roman War, occurring from 73 to 74 CE on a large hilltop in current-day Israel. The siege was chronicled by Flavius Josephus, a Jewish rebel leader captured by the Romans, in whose service he became a historian. According to Josephus the long siege by the troops of the Roman Empire led to the mass suicide of the Sicarii rebels and resident Jewish families of the Masada fortress. Masada has become a controversial event in Jewish history, with some regarding it as a place of reverence, commemorating fallen ancestors and their heroic struggle against oppression, and others regarding it as a warning against extremism and the refusal to compromise.

After our visit to the top of Masada, we will stop at a local Oasis to have the opportunity to take relaxing swim in the Dead Sea and at Qumrun, where the Dead Sea scrolls were discovered. On our way back to Jerusalem, we will drive through Jericho.
